

Kirk Miller

Kirk Miller is recognized as a painter of portraits and the figure. Governors, University Presidents, Pulitzer Prize winning authors, industrialists, hall of fame athletes, playboy models and celebrities have all sought out his talents.

After graduating from Troy State University, under famed New York illustrator, Woody Ishmael, Kirk Miller embarked on a long career of commercial illustrations for magazines, books, cover art, posters, murals, newspaper syndication and advertising art.

His paintings can be found in collections across America and as far away as Korea and Australia.

Works in the Collection of:

Governor & Mrs. Pete Wilson, California
Governor George Wallace, Alabama
Mr. Ted Turner, Turner Broadcasting Co.
"Boom-Boom" Gehrion, Hockey Hall of Fame
Dr. Max Rafferty, Author/Educator
J.D. Carol, Educator/Pulitzer Prize Winner
Kia Motors, Seoul, Korea
Chroma, Inc., Australia
Chiropractic Centennial Foundation
Foster Publications
Selma Historical and Civic Building, Alabama
Excel Gallery, New York, NY

Works in Publications:

New York Graphic Society
American Artist Magazine
Foster Publications
California Chiropractic Journal
Artist Magazine
Mork-Morgan Syndication
Burgess Press
Cross and Crescent Magazine
Geographic Greeting Cards
Atlanta Hawks
Atlanta Falcons
National Art Material Trade Association

KIRK MILLER ART STUDIO

kirkmillerartstudio.com kirkmillerartstudio@gmail.com
(916) 989-1977